

APPLICATIONS ARE OPEN FOR THE 74th EDITION FOR 2025/26

The Farmers' Company Agricultural Business Management course is open for applications ahead of our autumn/winter programme for 2025/26 - once again under the tutelage of our co-course directors, Keith Barriball and Karen Brosnan. Applications will close at 23:59 on 30th April 2025.

2024/25 Cohort

The industry's leading development programme for business owners and senior managers. Each is exposed to a wide range of industry-leading, visiting experts and presenters. Participants work with the rest of their delegate group, in a robust but highly collaborative environment to establish a clear vision of the future for themselves and their business.

The programme commences pre-residential preparation starts on 27th and 28th October with the content delivery provided online. This is followed by two weeks in residence at the Stonehouse Court, Stonehouse near Stroud, Gloucestershire, 9th-22nd November inclusive, followed up with post-programme online coaching on 10th December and 4th February 2026. In addition, there is also one-to-one online coaching planned in December 2025 and January 2026.

Stonehouse Court will be our new home and will suit our needs; the original hotel dates back to the 1600s and either side of the main building we will have our own modern accommodation wing and the standalone conference centre:
